Wayland Cranberry is a bay stallion standing at 147 cm. He has proven to be a prolific winner in hand and under saddle, having won in the region of 75 Championships so far in his showing career, and in the region of 25 Supreme Championships in hand, under saddle and in working hunter pony.

Some of his in hand championship wins include:- 5 times Supreme Champion at the New Forest and Hampshire County Show, 4 times at the National Pony Society (NPS) Annual Summer Show, 6 times Champion Stud Stallion at the Annual New Forest Breed Show, winning the Supreme title in 2000 and 2004 and best owner bred in 2000, 2003 and 2004.

Ridden wins include NPS Area 24 and 25, NPS Annual Show, Royal County of Berks, the New Forest and Hampshire County Show, where he also competed in the Presidents Showjumping Challenge for three years. At the New Forest Pony Breeding and Cattle Society Annual Breed Show, he was Supreme Ridden Champion in 2003 and in 2004, when he also added the Champion in hand and Champion Working Hunter Pony titles to his list of achievements.

Cranberry qualified for Wembley in 2000 and Olympia in 2001, qualifying again from 2003 - 2006 consecutively, taking the Best of Breed award every time, also being placed 6th overall in 2005.

Cranberry has Breed Society grading from Preliminary to Elementary level dressage and Grade 1 and 2 Showjumping, all of which were achieved on the same day. As far as we are aware, no other pony has done this.

He is also competing in Affiliated Dressage and winning at Elementary level, qualifying for the Regional Finals in 2005.
